ABOUT ARTS ALLIANCE

Arts Alliance is the oldest and largest student theatre group at Northwestern University, a school renowned for its breadth of undergraduate-produced performing arts. Founded in 1974 by a collection of campus arts groups looking to share office space, Arts Alliance has grown to become one of the largest student arts organization in the country. Our season consists of four mainstage shows each year including The Dolphin Show, America's Largest Student Produced Musical, as well as the management of three Satellite groups: Thunk A Cappella, Graffiti Dancers, and Mee-Ow Improv & Sketch Comedy. The Arts Alliance Executive Board consists of 13-15 members from all types of educational backgrounds committed to bringing accessible, entertaining theatrical experiences to the Northwestern and Evanston communities.

Visit us online at www.NorthwesternArtsAlliance.com and follow us on Facebook at www.facebook.com/ArtsAllianceatNU.
